

“May the God of HOPE fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in Him, so that you may overflow with HOPE by the power of the Holy Spirit.” Romans 15:13 NIV.

Where’s your hope? Has it been diminished by some sort of event or trial in life? The storms we see ourselves through can be devastating, taking its toll on everything we hold close to us.

It’s by no accident that you’ve come upon this site. Has God found it necessary to have your broken and battered hull, with its twisted masts and torn sails to be tugged here to the shore for major restoration and repair? What’s been consuming your soul has perhaps led you from your raging sea of situation in search of a place to go for respite. Whatever it is that has caused you to go searching, please be encouraged to continue searching still. Find your HOPE in Him. In little portions at first, and then on to replace the sorrow, despair and brokenness.

Keep coming to Him. Keep asking Him. Keep seeking Him. Keep knocking on the door for Him. For His words are life, love and truth. Without them, none of us would even exist today. Because He spoke it all into existence, long before we were even born. Ephesians 1:4 NIV

The world can’t fix our problems. But Christ, through our Heavenly Father can. Hope means seeing the outcome in the midst of a storm. Based on His promises we must hold on until the storm passes. I’m praying that your “storm” is passing, or has passed. If it has, through His power and word, pull that anchor up and give God, who gives “the peace that passes all understanding,” the opportunity to fix the brokenness of your spiritual vessel.

Hope is the one thing that we have left after times of crisis and misery. Claim it now. Cling to it and don’t let it go. “For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord. Plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you HOPE and a future. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. You will seek Me and find Me, when you seek Me with all your heart. I will be found by you declares the Lord...” Jer. 29:11, 12 and 13 NIV.

Don’t short circuit Gods plans. Get your repair and restoration underway, and let Him prepare you to sail the delightful oceans of His pure sweet love. Peace is with you.
